different people, as opposed to be multiple pieces of identifying information coming from the same individual.

4. Now that the Government is aware of the correct identifying information for the subject, the Government intends to amend the criminal information and penalty sheet to reflect the accurate identity of the subject. The corrected criminal information is attached to this motion. If this motion is granted, a corrected penalty sheet will be filed separately.

For the above-stated reasons, the Government respectfully requests that the Court permit the Government to file an amended criminal information and penalty sheet.

Respectfully submitted this 3rd day of November, 2015.
